DEDICATED TO EXCELLENCE

A PROGRAM DEDICATED TO EXCELLENCE

The Concordia University basketball program is steeped in one of the strongest winning traditions in the CIAU. Between 1968 and 1972, the team put together a remarkable and unprecedented string of 66 straight victories in league play.

In 1975, when Sir George Williams University and Loyola College merged, the Concordia Stingers were born. Since that time, the team has been a model of consistency averaging 20 wins per season en route to an impressive overall record of 286-146. This winning tradition has translated into nine conference titles, four trips to the Canadian Nationals and a 1990 CIAU National Championship. The team also boasts the best record against N.C.A.A. competition in Eastern Canada.

While the school is very proud of the "maroon and gold's" performance on the court including the 1990 Championship and the contribution of ten All-Canadians, it is prouder still of the team's academic achievement. To date, many of the athletes from the men's basketball program have graduated with distinction. Indeed, within the last three years alone, five Stingers have received Québec Foundation Scholarships for combining athletics with academic excellence.

The Concordia basketball philosophy is clear and attracts players from all over the world – gifted athletes are to be given every encouragement to succeed in the classroom as well as on the court. The emphasis on academic achievement is critical, because when the last jump shot has been launched the athlete needs more than memories to fall back on – he needs an education.

With a first-rate coaching staff, a winning tradition, outstanding academics, a competitive schedule and excellent support services, Concordia continues to be the place for the serious young basketball player. ## MEET THE COACHES

JOHN DORE
Head Coach

At the start of the 89-90 Season, the Stingers took to the court under the guidance of new Head Coach, John Dore. Dore, who spent the previous eight years as an assistant coach with the team, was obviously ready for the challenge as he led the Stingers to a 25 and 7 record, a conference title and a National Championship.

A native of Queen's, New York, John first came to Montreal in 1972 to play basketball for Loyola College before ending his playing career with the first-ever Concordia Stingers. Dore, who was always a presence on the court, averaged 15 points a game, was a Conference All-Star three times and was perhaps the finest defensive player Concordia has ever produced. His Stinger accomplishments were recognized in 1985 when he was one of eight players chosen to Concordia's All-Decade basketball team.

John was offered a contract to tour with the Harlem Globetrotters as an opposing player, but refused the opportunity in order to pursue his teaching career. That decision led him to St. George's High School in Westmount where he taught and acted as the institution's Athletic Director until 1990.

Before joining the Stingers, Dore coached Vanier College for two seasons, compiling a 35-20 record and leading the team to two consecutive play-off appearances.

In addition to coaching, Dore is the Marketing and Communications Coordinator for the Department of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics at Concordia.

HARVEY LIVERMAN
Assistant Coach

Harvey, a dedicated and enthusiastic player with Loyola College from 1968-1972, has approached his position as Assistant Coach with equal determination since 1985. In addition to his responsibilities on the court, Harvey is actively involved in recruiting committed athletes and students to the team - players who can carry Concordia's tradition of excellence into the 90's.

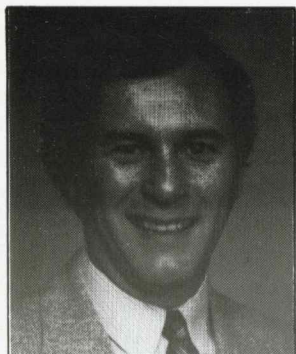

A fine all-around athlete, Harvey excelled in basketball and baseball. While on route to three MVP seasons with the Northmount High School "hoopsters", Harvey averaged 33 points a game. As a slick-fielding third baseman with the St. Henri Juniors, he was scouted by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Harvey also plays an important role in the development of Concordia's Department of Fitness, Recreation & Athletics as an assistant to Director Bob Philip.

Concordia Today

BOB PHILIP
Athletic Director

From its founding institutions, Loyola College and Sir George Williams University, Concordia inherited a long history of providing higher education to men and women of all ages and backgrounds. Today, Concordia is proud to continue this tradition by offering a university experience that combines some of the most exciting and innovative education in North America with highly competitive athletics.

Concordia offers low student-teacher ratios, excellent and accessible professors and the diversity of two distinct campuses.

Quality coaching and a dedication to the development of student athletes carries on a proud athletic tradition that has spanned ten decades.

Combining high performance athletics with academics requires hard work and discipline. However, the rewards are great. You will leave Concordia University not only with a quality education but also with the motivation, dedication and work habits essential for future successes.

If you are serious about learning and are willing to make the commitment needed for athletics, then Concordia University is where you want to be.

Admissions

Concordia's academic department and associated institutes are grouped into four faculties: ARTS AND SCIENCE, COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION, ENGINEERING AND COMPUTER SCIENCE and FINE ARTS. Together they offer more than 180 academic programs leading to 8 undergraduate, 7 graduate and 15 doctoral degrees. Some programs are quite traditional, while others reflect the university's innovative response to society's changing needs.
